

Setting Up Age Groups

Overview

- Age groups are an important component within the system. They determine which registration packages players and club registrars see when they register.
- Care should be taken when setting up age groups. We strongly recommend that you follow the age groups setup within your Association/State/Territory Federation's fee structure.

Tips and Considerations

- When you are a setting up your age groups you should consider the age groups of your Member Federation.
- More care should be taken with the age groups if your club intends to promote self registration as players will view the age groups when registering with your club.
- Once you have created your age groups, we advise you to communicate these to your Players and Club Registrars so they are clear on the packages they should be selecting.
- Please consider whether you have players that are playing outside of their age groups, either playing up or down. Remember that they won't be able to register outside the age range set-up in the system.
- Have your age groups ready prior to creating them in the system.
- If you set up age groups last year, you can use these to create packages this year.
- Age groups will restrict which packages and fees players can select when registering but will not restrict you from allocating players to a team outside the players age group.
